Subject: Special Opportunity this Weekend!

Happy 4th of July week! As we celebrate our nation's freedom we will also have a special opportunity. Each Campus will hear from their campus pastor, casting vision around things they feel need to be heard in each community. This will be very cool!

That being said, instead of a central discussion guide, we are encouraging groups to pursue one of these approaches if meeting this week for small group:

- 1) Take great notes from the message, and then when you get to your group, you can cover the passage from the message, and discuss main points.
- 2) Have a picnic or a pool party or activity celebrating the season, and celebrating God's goodness to our nation.
- 3) Use the group meeting as an opportunity to really dig deep into prayer needs and spend extra time praying for families, marriages, etc.

Just to be clear: There will be no posted discussion guide this weekend.

Praying for all of you, for a joyful celebration of freedom in our nation!
