Philippians 1:1a

Paul and Timothy, slaves of Christ Jesus ...

I Corinthians 15:9-10

[Gospel of first importance ...]

For I am the least of the apostles, not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. ¹⁰ But by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace toward me was not in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them, yet not I, but the grace of God that was with me.

2 Timothy 2:1

You [Timothy], therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 1:3-5

I give thanks to my God for every remembrance of you, ⁴ always praying with joy for all of you in my every prayer, ⁵ because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now.

In Philippi, grace had unleashed a noticeable process of transformation.

Philippians 1:6-7

I am sure of this, that He who started a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus. ⁷ Indeed, it is right for me to think this way about all of you, because I have you in my heart, and you are all partners with me in grace, both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel.
