

One night, when Belshazzar was king of Babylon, Daniel had a special dream while he was lying in bed. In his dream, he saw amazing things and wrote them down so he wouldn't forget.

Daniel saw seats set up for an important meeting. God, who lives forever, came and sat on one of the seats. His clothes were white like snow, and his hair was white like soft wool. His throne looked like it was made of fire, and flames surrounded it. A bright river of fire flowed from in front of him. Thousands of angels were there, serving him, and millions stood in front of him.

Then Daniel saw someone who looked like a person, riding on the clouds of heaven. This person came to God and was given special power, glory, and a kingdom. People from every nation, speaking all kinds of languages, worshiped him. His power will last forever, and his kingdom will never be destroyed.

Daniel's Dream; Daniel 7

While in Babylonian exile, one night Daniel dreams of four fierce beasts who would bring chaos. But the dream ends with God's everlasting King bringing order through His eternal reign.
