Ephesians 4:20-32

The way we _____ about ourselves is built on the foundation of what we have _____ said about us.

People _____ certain things about themselves because of the way you _____ to them.

God's agenda for you, me, and us is to help each other _____ into our _____ to become more Christ-like.

When we choose to tear someone _____ with our words, we _____ the door for God's grace to work in the relationship.

When we choose to build someone _____, we _____ the door for God's grace to work in the relationship.

A perspective shift in our relationships: how does God want to _____ to build them up into their _____ in Christ?

Right thing, Right time, Right way
What do they need to _____?
_____ does it need to be said?
_____ does it need to be said?
