

NOW THAT'S A MIRACLE!

SERIES OVERVIEW

Everywhere Jesus walked, people were changed. Over and over the Gospels reveal a flesh-wearing God who wasn't preoccupied by where He was going but was fully present to the people along the way. In this series, kids will encounter a Jesus who is fully loving yet unfathomably powerful, a Jesus whose words command nature to obey and whose compassion for the hungry crowds compels Him to do the impossible. Kids will hear about Jesus healing a man who was blind and a sick woman, commanding a girl who has died to get up, and strolling across storm-tossed waters. In this series, kids will encounter a miracle-working Jesus who sees them, loves them, and will stop at nothing to be with them.

SERIES INVITATION

How do you define miracle? Do you reserve the word for God's grandest overtures, for the boom of His voice speaking galaxies into existence and commanding wind and waves to be still? Or do you use the word to describe your daily experiences, from the setting sun to the sound of a loved one's voice?

If a miracle is an amazing sign that God is at work, then maybe all of it is miraculous. God creates life and sustains it. He is present in our lives, inviting us into a bigger story, working on our behalf, showing up in power, covering us in grace, and carrying us when we don't have the strength for another step.

He has always been a God of miracles. There is no storm that He can't calm, no disease He can't heal. He bends the laws of physics to walk on water. His power is greater than death. His compassion never ends.

The truth that our God does miracles doesn't mean life is easy. But it does mean that when the storms feel relentless and we're too exhausted to go on, we are not alone. We can take heart because the God of the impossible is with us. And for us.
