

O Majesty unspeakable. You alone can declare "I AM WHO I AM" and in You we live and move and have our being! We worship You! Yahweh, You are our Shepherd; we shall not want!

*Blessed Lord Jesus, Your Gospel is of first importance, and we are not ashamed of it. Your Name is excellent and Your compassions unfailing. We boast only in Your Cross and know our redemption, ransom, and adoption are won there.
Blessed are You O Father, for conceiving this way.
Eternal thanks to You O Lamb of God for opening this way.
Praise to You, O Holy Spirit for applying this way to the hearts of sinners.*

*O God because of the Gospel, we know You are both for us and You are with us. We praise You O God for the confidence we have in You. We look to the world and become discouraged. We look to You and are both saved and satisfied.
Holy Spirit, take the riches of Christ and show them to our souls. Fill our emptiness with the fullness of Christ. May He be exalted above all things.*

*O God, our desire is to live continually and consciously before Your face.
May Your Spirit be ungrieved here. Dwell within and among us without rival. May Your word be honored here.*

You are the God who makes all things new. Restoration and revival are your special work so we pray that You will touch our hearts, giving us faith that will rise and dare to believe that You do all things well, including the unexpected and even the impossible!

*Our Father, how easy it is to get into a rut and to let yesterday dictate tomorrow but we seek to know You more and more each day. We want to know and to trust You like we've never known or trusted You before, even in the valley of the shadow of death.
Yahweh, You can do more by Your grace and goodness than we can by control.*

*O God, with You, we know fear & anxiety are not part of our inheritance in Christ. We are not backing down, and we are not allowing the enemy to tell us who we are.
O God break out in such fullness that the devil will know he is not running things. Give us such fellowship with You and with one another that we may defy satan, unbelief, the flesh and the world.*

Grant that our contentment in Christ would be a dissatisfied contentment, eager to expand by including others. While Jesus is representing us in heaven, may we reflect him here on earth. May our light shine in this world so that people see You in our sacrificial deeds of love and our uncompromising words of truth. We long for others to know, feel and rejoice that You are God! Promote Your cause, let Your Kingdom come, bring in great numbers to Jesus!

*We want to bring honor to Your Name—the Name above all Names.
O God, hear us, do more for us than we can ask, think or imagine.
Blessed be Your Name! Hallowed be Your Name*
