In God's Big Story

Elijah challenges the prophets of Baal to a showdown: Whichever god sends fire to burn the bull on the altar is the one true God. Nothing happens when Baal's prophets cry out to their god, but when Elijah prays to God, fire comes down from heaven!

FAMILY CONVERSATIONS

Families, use this to prompt conversations at the table, in the car, and anywhere else your family experiences life together.

- What are some activities or things that our family spends a lot of time doing?
- How can we worship God through our daily activities?
- Who are some of the people we know who don't know God?
- How can we be praying for those people?
- How can we show others in our lives that we worship God alone?

LIFE CONNECTION

Fireside Chat

God showed up with amazing power when He sent fire from heaven to burn up Elijah's sacrifice. God showed everyone that He is the only true God.

This week, consider spending time together around a firepit. If you don't have access to an outdoor fire, then use an indoor fireplace or simply light some candles or turn on some flashlights and sit in a circle around them. Spend some time talking about ways God has shown up in power. You can talk about examples from the Bible and share examples from your own life or the lives of your family members.

Spend a few minutes praying for people in your life who need to see God's power.

WALK IT ACT IT MOVE IT

Hike with a Purpose

Elijah challenged the prophets of Baal to a contest on Mount Carmel. This mountain is 1,800 feet above sea level—quite a hike for Elijah and all the people. But he was determined to show everyone that God is the only true God.

Climb a hill together. As you hike, talk about things in your life that sometimes take your attention away from God—activities, phones, TV, school, work, money, etc. Discuss some ways you can be thoughtful about how you spend your time and ways you can incorporate God and His ways into your family life.

When you get to the top of the hill, encourage every member of your family to say one thing they love about who God is and what He has done. Then race each other back down the hill!
